9. FORMALITIES

The following applies to requests (other than personal requests):

- 9.1. A requestor is required to pay the prescribed fees depending on the type of information requested as further set out in the Appendix B 'Fees in respect of private bodies.' before a request will be processed;
- 9.2. There are two categories of fees payable:
  - 9.2.1. The request fee – R50
  - 9.2.2. The access fee – calculated taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation costs as well as postal costs.
- 9.3. PAIA does allow Santova to levy a charge or request a fee to enable it to recover the costs of processing a request and providing access to records. The fees that may be charged are set out in Regulation 9(2)(c) of PAIA.
- 9.4. Where a decision to grant a request has been taken, the record will not be disclosed until the necessary fees are paid in full.
- 9.5. Please note that POPIA provides that a data subject may, upon proof of identity, request Santova confirm (free of charge) all the information it holds about the data subject and may request access to such information including information about the identity of third parties who have/have had access to such information.
- 9.6. POPIA confirms that where a data subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, Santova must provide the data subject a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the services and may require that the data subject pays a deposit for all/part of the fee.
- 9.7. If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (six), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted);
- 9.8. Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.
- 9.9. POPIA allows for you as a Data Subject to object, at any time, to the processing of Personal Information by Santova subject to it being on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation unless there is legislation which provides for such processing.
- 9.10. If you wish to object, please:
  - 9.10.1. complete the prescribed form attached 'Appendix C – Form 1 – Objection to the processing of personal information in terms of section 11(3) of POPIA Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 2]'
  - 9.10.2. Provide proof of identity (e.g. certified copy of your Identity Document/other legal forms of identity) to authenticate your identity and request.
  - 9.10.3. Submit the form once completed to the Information Officer at email: informationofficer@santova.com.
- 9.11. POPIA allows you to request a correction/deletion of Personal Information held about you the Data Subject in Santova's possession/under its control where it is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out-of-date, incomplete, misleading/obtained unlawfully or where it is requested Santova delete a record of Personal Information about the Data Subject that Santova is no longer authorized to retain in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.
- 9.12. If you wish to correct/delete Personal Information/require the destruction/deletion of a record of Personal Information please:
  - 9.12.1. Complete the form attached 'Appendix D - FORM 2 - Request for correction or deletion of personal information or destroying or deletion of record of personal information in terms of section 24(1) of POPIA's Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 3]

- 9.12.2. Provide proof of identity (e.g. certified copy of your Identity Document/other legal forms of identity) to authenticate your identity and request.
- 9.12.3. Submit a request to the Information Officer at email: informationofficer@santova.com.
- 9.13. Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days unless the requests contains considerations which are of such a nature that a time extension is needed and if so you will be notified together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.
- 9.14. There are also grounds for refusing a request for access to a record, these may include (list is not exhaustive):
  - 9.14.1. the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
  - 9.14.2. the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
  - 9.14.3. if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
  - 9.14.4. if disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
  - 9.14.5. if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
  - 9.14.6. if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put Santova at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition; and/or
  - 9.14.7. if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by Santova.
- 9.15. However PAIA contains an overriding provision (Section 70) and disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal:
  - 9.15.1. either a substantial contravention of/failure to comply with the law or there is an imminent and serious public safety/environmental risk; and
  - 9.15.2. the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.
- 9.16. If the request for access to information affects a third party then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty one) days of receipt of the request and the third party would then have a further 21 (twenty one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.
- 9.17. If the Information Officer decided to grant a requester access to the particular record then such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.
- 9.18. There is a appeal procedure which can be followed after a request to access information has been refused, this will outline by the Information Officer upon request.
- 9.19. In the event you are not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal then you are entitled to apply to the Information Regulator/a court of competent jurisdiction to take matters further.
- 9.20. If a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant you access to the record then the third party involved has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction and if no appeal has been lodged by the third party within 30 (thirty) days then you must be granted access to the record.
